

The Empty Desk

What are three reasons to leave the desk in its usual place and help students process the death with the desk in the room?

What are the likely reasons for reluctance on the part of the teacher?

What are some suggestions for helping the teacher warm up to the idea of leaving the desk in the room?

Do you have ideas other than the one suggested in the video for how/when the desk would be removed?
What are the important considerations?

What are your next actions steps? Who needs to know this?
